Thursday Morning Club

The Thursday Morning Members are wishing everyone a great New Year. It is the time to look back over our accomplishments and plan for the New Year. Our club has had excellent programs and we are looking forward to outstanding programs in the New Year.

In December we had our Holiday Celebration with a cookie exchange, fun and games, singing by everyone. We have two women who have beautiful voices Pat Kennedy and Donna Jones-Brown. They both sang a solo song.

In January, Pat Kennedy gave a biography on Pat Nixon. The stories about Mrs. Nixon were very interesting. It gave us a whole new perspective of her as person from her early teenage years to her living in the Whitehouse to her death. The other workshop was given by Liz Richardson, Tax-Talk on Foreclosures and Cancellation of Debt. If you know anyone who has experienced these unforeseen tax events, give Liz a call at H & R Block. She would love to answer any questions on taxes.
